

Pre-Training Review

Australian National Training ensures that an applicant goes through a formal pre - enrolment interview with our Training Administrator to assess their suitability of enrolling into the course. This pre - enrolment Interview Questionnaire is a learner needs analysis tool to ensure all learner needs are identified prior to enrolment.

This process ensures that each applicant:

- has been provided with accurate and adequate information about the course, its delivery, fees and charges, structure and expectations, for example the timetable, nature of assessments, required work placements, support available, assessment requirements and the applicable processes of Australian National Training to ensure that they make an informed choice of enrolling with Australian National Training
- has been assessed for their suitability to enrol in this program including being assessed for their LLN and any special needs to meet the internal benchmarks of a learner enrolled in this program is suitable for this AQF Level.
